(g) The Trust SHALL have and endeavor to use any and all advantages available to the imagination and intelligence of the Trustee and SHALL have power to do any thing thinkable in whatever form so long as they be peaceful, creative, and not infringe upon the rights of others, or be expressly against The Law.

(h) The Trust SHALL be surety for the Trust beneficiaries and Trustee

(i) The Trust Agreement, Certification of Trust, Identification Card, and Badge, and any mail or other corresponding Legal Documents SHALL serve as a LEGAL PROOF OF IDENTIFICATON AND PASSPORT AND CLAIM TO RIGHT OF SAFE PASSAGE AND TRAVEL presentable to any inquiring party.

(j) The Trust SHALL have power to transact business with any party without waiving it's jurisdiction or any rights, in any land, state, nation, or territory.

III. FUNDING OF TRUST 3. Grantor has surrendered all rights and power of ownership, and exchanged, transferred, assigned, conveyed, and delivered and/or will exchange, transfer, assign, convey, and deliver to the Trustee the property described in Schedule A attached and made a part hereof; and any and all other property which may be hereafter assigned, conveyed, and delivered to said Trustee by the Grantor or another person as hereinafter provided, is intended to constitute the trust estate and to be held by the Trustee in trust for the uses and purposes and subject to the express terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

4.The Grantor, or any other person, with the consent of the Trustee, may at any time or from time to time cause property to be exchanged to and administered as a part of the trust estate created hereunder. Any such exchange may be evidenced by the receipt from the Trustee of a certificate of trust, and each such receipt shall be conclusive evidence of the consent of said Trustee to the exchange thereof.

IV. MANAGEMENT OF TRUST ASSETS 5. The Trustee shall manage and distribute the Trust assets for the benefit of the certificate holders and beneficiaries in interest in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

V. ADDITIONAL TRUSTEE PROVISIONS 6. If at any time a Grantor serves as the Trustee, the Grantor may appoint a successor Trustee, to become effective immediately or upon any stated contingency, by making such designation in writing. Such designee shall become the successor Trustee upon acceptance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

7. If at any time a Trustee is unable or unwilling to serve, _____ is designated as the successor Trustee, to serve without bond.

8. Any Trustee may resign by giving written notice to the Trustee or beneficiaries to whom income is being distributed under the provisions of this Agreement. Such resignation shall take effect on such date specified in the notice, but no earlier than thirty days after the date of delivery of such written resignation unless an earlier effective date is agreed upon by the income beneficiaries.

9. If the Trustee resigns or is for any reason unwilling or unable to serve as Trustee, and if the successor Trustee designated by the Grantor, if any, fails or ceases to serve as Trustee, then the adult beneficiaries to whom income is being distributed, together with the adult beneficiaries to whom principal would be distributed if the Trust were to then terminate, may by majority action in writing appoint a successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee appointed shall have all the rights conferred upon the original Trustee and shall be bound by the provisions of this Trust.

10. The Trustee shall provide an accounting to the Beneficiaries according to at least the following frequency: Annually.

11. No bond shall be required of any Trustee.

VI. PAYMENTS DURING THE Trustee'S LIFETIME 12. During the Trustee's lifetime, the Trustee shall pay all of the net income in this Trust, and also such sums from principal FREE OF TAX AND LEVY as the Grantor may request, to or for the benefit of the beneficiaries, or as the Trustee may designate.

13. Such payments shall be made at least annually.

14. The Trustee may change the amount of the payments at any time by providing written or oral notice.

15. Any excess income not distributed at the Trustee's death shall be added to the principal at the discretion of the Trustee or surviving beneficiaries.

16. During any period that the Trustee Trustee has a "disability," the Trustee may pay to or for the benefit of the Trustee such amounts of income and principal as the Trustee reasonably believes to be in the Trustee's sole discretion to be required for (1) the Trustee's support, comfort, and welfare, (2) the Trustee's accustomed manner of living, or (3) any purpose that the Trustee believes to be in the best interest of the Trustee.

17. In the event of illness or other disability of the Trustee, the Trustee may, in lieu of making payment of such income directly to the beneficiary use and apply for the benefit of the Trustee so much of such income and also the principal of the Trust estate for the proper care, comfort, medical care, maintenance, and support of the Trustee. The Trustee, in such discretion, may pay over to any relative or legal guardian of the Trustee, all or any portion of such income or principal for any of said purposes in lieu of using and applying said funds for the benefit of the beneficiary throughout any such illness or disability.

18. For the purposes of this Trust, "disability" shall mean a legal disability or the inability to provide prompt and intelligent thought to financial matters by reason of illness or mental or physical disability. The determination of whether the Grantor has a disability under this definition shall be made by the common sense of his trusted caregivers. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on written notice of such a determination.

VII. TRUST DISTRIBUTION AFTER THE Trustee'S DEATH 19. To receive a specific distribution under this Trust, a beneficiary must survive the Grantor by 3 (three) days. Any items that fail to pass through a specific gift that the Grantor has named here will return to the residue of the Grantor's Trust. All property given under this Agreement is not subject to any encumbrances, liens, or taxes.

20. The Grantor's specific distributions are the following:

21. To receive any property or gifts under this Agreement, a beneficiary must survive the Grantor by 3 (three) days. Beneficiaries of the Grantor's Trust residue will share in all of the Grantor's property and assets that have not been bequeathed via specific gifts or are otherwise required for the repayment of debts owed, including but not limited to burial or funeral expenses, or any other expenses associated with administration of the Grantor's Trust. The residue of the Grantor's Trust is to be distributed between the beneficiaries designated here with the beneficiaries each receiving a share of the residue of the Grantor's entire estate. All property distributed under this Agreement is not subject to any encumbrances or liens attached to the property.

22. The Trustee shall distribute the residue of the Grantor's Trust in the following manner ("Share Allocations") : The residue of the The Trust shall be distributed to any of the Grantor's currently living beneficiaries alive at the time of the Grantor's death in equal shares. If a beneficiary does not survive the Grantor, such share shall be distributed in equal shares to the biological children of such deceased beneficiary who survive the Grantor. If a beneficiary does not survive the Grantor and has no children who survive the Grantor, such share shall be distributed in equal shares to the Grantor's other beneficiaries, if any, or to their respective children by right of representation. If no beneficiary survives the Grantor, and if none of the Grantor's deceased children are survived by any children, the residuary of the Grantor's estate shall be distributed to the following alternate beneficiary: _____.

If no above named beneficiaries survive the Grantor, the residue of the Grantor's the Trust shall be distributed to the Grantor's heirs-at-law, their identities and respective shares to be determined by common intestacy laws.

VIII. TRUSTEE POWERS 23. The expression "Trustee" used throughout this Trust Agreement includes both the singular or plural, or the masculine or feminine gender, as appropriate and required by context;

24. To carry out the terms of the Grantor's Trust, the Trustee has the following powers in addition to, and without restriction to any, to be used in his or her well-considered discretion at any time in the management of a trust created hereunder, namely : (a) To receive, hold, maintain, administer, collect, invest, and re-invest the trust assets, and collect and apply the income, profits, and principal of the Trust in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; (b) To receive additional assets from other sources, including assets received under the Will of the Grantor or any other individual; (c) To make expenditures as necessary to carry out the intent and purpose of the trust; (d) To sell, call in, and convert into money any trust property, including real property, that the Trustee, in his or her best judgment deems advisable; (e) To mortgage trust property where the Trustee considers it prudent and advisable to do so; (f) Subject to Grantor's direction to the contrary, to borrow money when the Trustee considers it advisable to do so; (g) Subject to Grantor's direction to the contrary, to lend money to the trust beneficiary if the Trustee considers it to be in the beneficiary's best interest to do so; (h) To make expenditures for the purpose of improving, repairing, or maintaining any property; (i) To exercise all rights and options of an owner of any securities held in trust; (j) To lease trust property, including real estate, without limit as to term; (o) make investments the Trustee considers prudent and advisable, without being limited to those investments authorized by law for trustees; (l) To receive additional property from any source and in any form of ownership; (m) To employ any third person or persons to conduct any business or perform any actions related to the trust, including the receipt and payment of money, without being liable for loss incurred; (n) To settle, waive, or pursue any claims at any time due to or by the trust to the extent that the Trustee considers this to be in the best interest of the trust beneficiary, and to make agreements with any third party or parties or corporation in respect thereof, which shall be binding upon such beneficiary; (o)To pay him or herself a reasonable compensation out of the trust assets for the labor of managing the trust.

25. The above powers granted to the Trustee are in addition to any powers and elective rights granted to the Trustee by state or federal law or statute or by any other provisions of this Agreement and may be exercised as often as required and without approval.

26. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Trustee shall not be held liable for any loss to the estate or to any beneficiary resulting from his or her good faith efforts to manage the trust and use any discretion given them in this Agreement.

27. This Trust shall be administered independently of courts, state or federal, and shall confer no jurisdiction to any foreign party to the trust. Administration shall be handled privately and exclusively within the family or third party assistance or arbitration of whatever form other than state or federal courts.

VIII. GOVERNING LAW AND EXCLUSIONS 28. This trust shall be governed by the general common contract law, this agreement, and shall be exclusive of all foreign parties.

IX MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS. 29. If any beneficiary named in this Agreement or trust certificate holder, attempts to contests in court any of the provisions of this Trust, then each and all such persons shall not be entitled to any devises, legacies, bequests, or benefits under this Trust, and such interest or share in the trust estate shall be disposed of as if that contesting beneficiary had not survived the Grantor.
